

"THE LANGUAGE OF CORPSES"

TT LINSE
Creator of Worlds

The Language of Corpses is constructed of three people's stories that come together in the end. The first is a young person who is an orphan who gets brought on by the local mob. She's not a bad person, but she doesn't have a lot of choices. The second is a scientist who is fascinated by these creatures called the taktak. She lives in a scientific community and goes on adventure. The third generally wouldn't even be considered human in this world. He was a manufactured bio body that was just supposed to be used and discarded. But he was left in cryo for hundreds of years, and when he's finally brought out of it, he's the only one left on his asteroid city, a pseudo-moon of Neptune. That moon, Clete, is failing in orbit and breaking up. There's also a mystery because some characters hear voices. Who are those voices? That ability is key to the plot.

PURCHASING DETAILS

Available at Amazon, Barnes and Noble, Indie Bound & Itasca Books

Publisher: SALIX, Sept. 2020

Price: $14.44, (Paperback), $6.58 (eBook)

ISBN: 1953694004

Pages: 474

CONTACT

www.ttinseauthor.com
ttlinseauthor@gmail.com
@ttlinse